He also has at least two moves that occurred in the preceding 36 months from the eligibility interview that resulted in the engagement of qualifying work. 1) In May 2017, to Washington State to pick apples, and 2) in October 2016, to Florida to pick cranberries. ## Scenario 4

Actively Sought

According to C10. of the Non-Regulatory Guidance:

The phrase “actively sought” implies the need to take positive action to seek such work. For example, the individual (or someone on his or her behalf) may have: applied for qualifying work, applied for such employment before moving, or have moved reasonably believing, based on newspaper ads or word of mouth, that such work would be available after the move. The Department believes that the process of actively seeking new qualifying work should happen within 60 days of the move.

Recent History of Moves

He will be working at a local tire shop in the meantime. This is Fernando's first time doing qualifying work.

Are Veronica and Claudia eligible for the FMEP?

Scenario 5

Scenario 6

---

Lalo, Sofia and their two school-aged children arrive in Hillsborough County on 08/01/2017 after their potato picking season ended in Alabama. Lalo arrived and began working in Alabama on 06/01/2017. Sofia is currently working at Burger King and Lalo is currently working as a janitor at a local hospital. The family had no intentions of doing any qualifying work in Florida. They instead work in agriculture during the kid's school breaks.

Are the children eligible for the FMEP based on their move to Florida?

Scenario 6

Does LALO meet the definition of a Migratory Qualifying Worker?

---

▶ Qualifying Move for Migratory Qualifying Worker

(does not have to be dependent of child's move)

- Lalo meets the definition of a Migratory Qualifying Worker on his move to Alabama, which occurred within the preceding 36 months of the eligibility interview and where he engaged in Qualifying Work (picking potatoes) soon after the move on 06/01/2017.
- This COE would be documented as a 4a in Section III, #4 showing the qualifying work done in Alabama.

Scenario 6

Do LALO'S children meet the definition of a Migratory Child?

▶ Age:

- ✓ The child is younger than 22 years of age

▶ School Completion:

- ✓ The child is eligible for a free public education under State law

▶ Qualifying Move for Child: (does not have to be dependent of MQW's move)

- ✓ Due to economic necessity; AND

▶ The child moved: (check only one)

- as a Migratory Qualifying Worker
- ✓ with a Migratory Qualifying Worker
- to join a parent/guardian or spouse who is a Migratory Qualifying Worker

Scenario 6

Do LALO'S children meet the definition of a Migratory Child?

- Lalo's two school-aged children meet the definition of Migratory Children based on their move from Alabama to Florida on 08/01/2017. The children were traveling to Florida with a parent/guardian who is a Migratory Qualifying Worker.
- This COE should be documented showing the children moving from Alabama TO Florida in Section III, #1 since this is the child's most recent Qualifying Move that was done with a Migratory Qualifying Worker.

Scenario 7

---

Jacinto, his wife, and three school-aged children arrived in Arizona on 11/27/2017 to pick lettuce. The family was in California on 07/26/2017 picking carrots. They arrived in Florida on 02/25/2018 after the lettuce season was over in Arizona. The recruiter interviews the family and finds that they have not engaged in qualifying work yet, but are living on the farm and will start grading strawberries on 03/11/2018. The recruiter interviews the family on 02/26/2018.

Are Jacinto's children eligible for the FMEP?

Scenario 7

Scenario 7

---

Does JACINTO meet the definition of a Migratory Qualifying Worker?

- Jacinto meets the definition of a Migratory Qualifying Worker based on his move from Arizona to Florida on 02/25/2018. The individual has not engaged in qualifying work but we can say he actively sought qualifying work within the first 60 days. He also has at least two moves that occurred in the preceding 36 months from the eligibility interview that resulted in the engagement of qualifying work. 1) On 07/26/2017 to California picking carrots, and 2) on 11/27/2017 to Arizona to pick lettuce.
- This COE would be documented as a 4b. move in Section III since the worker had not engaged in qualifying work at the time of the interview.

The recruiter could document this COE in three ways.

- 1) The recruiter could document this move as a 4b. now since the individual has not yet engaged in qualifying work at the time of the interview. This ensures the family gets recruited into the FL MEP.
- 2) The recruiter could wait to see if the individual engages in qualifying work soon after the move (within 60 days) and document this move as 4a in Section III. This gives the Migratory Qualifying Worker a more recent MQW status date.
- 3) The recruiter could use the move to Arizona on 11/27/2017 and document 4a in Section III. This option, however, does not give the Migratory Qualifying Worker his most recent MQW status date.

Scenario 7

Do JACINTO'S children meet the definition of a Migratory Child?

▶ Age:

- ✓ The child is younger than 22 years of age

▶ School Completion:

- ✓ The child is eligible for a free public education under State law

▶ Qualifying Move for Child: (does not have to be dependent of MQW's move)

- ✓ Due to economic necessity; AND
